review 2: I thoroughly enjoyed "Her Unexpected Cowboy". It's a story about two people each with a past that they are trying to overcome and they find one another along the way. You feel for both characters and want them to find their way to each other. I liked how the book had some unique touches to it- like the boys who live on the ranch. & Boon romance, so of course she does. What Jordan s novel illustrates, however, is the timelessness of the romance genre. Romance has used these tropes for centuries in order to ensure that love finds a way. And, of course, love does find a way in Jordan s novel.
